

CHALLARA

Poll Merino Stud

Open Day/Workshop

Friday 16th July 2021

at 821 Koonah Rd Badgingarra

“How to Fully Utilize Merino Production with Profitable Outcomes.”

Registrations from 9:15am Start from 9:45am to 3pm

Including Guest Speakers;

Dr Andrew Thompson, Murdoch University

‘Role of fat to resilience, reproduction and farm profit.’

Dr Graham Gardner, Murdoch University

‘IMF - a new trait for the lamb industry to trade on.’

Jim Gordon Via Video Link,

A progressive sheep producer Young, N.S.W.

‘How whole-body energy & intramuscular fat ties into five BIG energy users.’

Luke Freeman, Agronomist rep. Hi-Tech Ag Solutions

Why Regenerative Farming?

Greg Tilbrook, AWN W.A. wool manager/agent

The value of shearing twice/yr.

Booking: $30/person Dandaragan CRC on 96514071 R.S.V.P. by Friday July 9th for catering;

<https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/challara-open-day-workshop-tickets-161061325761>

More information: Peter @0427427691 or pe.wilkinson@outlook.com

Challara Open Day/Workshop

“How to Fully Utilize Merino Production with Profitable Outcomes.”

Agenda

Registrations from 9-9:30am

9:30-9:35am Welcome Greg Wootton, Local AWN stock agent

9:35-10:05am Dr Andrew Thompson, Murdoch University
‘Role of fat to resilience, reproduction and farm profit.’

10:05-10:35am Dr Graham Gardner, Murdoch University
‘IMF - a new trait for the lamb industry to trade on.’

10:35-11.00am Morning Tea

11.00-11:30am Jim Gordon via Video Link (A progressive sheep producer Young, N.S.W.)
‘How whole-body energy and intramuscular fat ties into five BIG energy users.’

11:30am-12:30pm Practical Workshop
coordinated by Jim Gordon

12:30-1:30pm Lunch

1:30-2.00pm Luke Freeman, Agronomist rep. Hi-Tech Ag Solutions
Why Regenerative Farming?

2.00-2:30pm Greg Tilbrook, AWN W.A. wool manager/agent
The value of shearing twice/yr.

2:30-3.00pm Panel Discussions

3.00pm Close

www.challara.com.au

Proudly supported by

WEST MIDLANDS GROUP
our knowledge hub